

Minor Applied Research in the Context of European Policing (MARCEP)

Extra information

Date

February or September

Duration

Erasmus+ students: 13 weeks (part 1) or 21 weeks (part 1 and 2)

Regular students: 9 weeks (part 1) or 20 weeks (part 1 and 2)

Number of participants

Maximum of 15 participants

Target group

Police students, young police professionals and other police (voluntary) colleagues who are interested. Open for EU and non-EU students.

Contents

The minor consists out of two programmes: European policing and Research Methods. While the European programme will focus more on different themes (such as public order and trafficking in human beings), the methodological programme will equip you with the tools to research these and other themes. One of the focuses of this course is the European security agenda. We look at terrorism and radicalisation, organised criminal groups and cybercrime.

Deadline for registration

June (start September) or November (start February)

Place

Apeldoorn, the Netherlands

Languages

English

Fee

Please contact Student Exchange (student.exchange@politieacademie.nl) for more information on the amount of this minor.

Housing

For students (< 30 years) the Police Academy has arranged housing at the FSG Academy (<http://fsgacademy.com/politieacademy>). For individual housing please contact Student Exchange for more information.

Additional Remarks

Language skills: English B2 level or higher.

Admission: Higher education degree, a comparable competency level or at least two years of relevant work experience at higher education level. Students most follow a police education, working at the police or be a police voluntary.

Confidentiality: Students must sign a statement of confidentiality.

Motivation: Students must have a state of good conduct or a letter of recommendation by their education or by the police.

Please contact Student Exchange (student.exchange@politieacademie.nl) for an application form.

Selection

If you are interested, please fill out an application form and send us your state of good conduct and/or letter of recommendation and your personal motivation. The Police Academy will make a selection based on your application and the number of participants.

Information and Registration

Are you interested in studying at the Police Academy of the Netherlands? Please visit www.politieacademie.nl/en for more information. You can also download the Study Guide. The contact point for any questions you may have about the minor, studying at the Police Academy and accommodation is Student Exchange at International Cooperation (SIRI) student.exchange@politieacademie.nl or 0031 (0)88 6622069.